Quotes From The News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

KYOTO, Japan — U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, assuring apprehensive Japanese that the United States is interested in peace above anything else in Viet Nam:
 "We hope that the North Vietnamese will agree to talk about peace as we and many other nations have long urged."

TOKYO — The official newspaper of the Communist Chinese Central Committee, commenting on the U.S. bombing of Hanoi and Haiphong:
 "The current bombing raids are a product of the filthy endorsed 'black power' as a means of achieving equality for political deal concluded between the United States and the Soviet Union, which are working hand in glove."

BALTIMORE, Md. — Floyd McKissick, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, explaining why CORE has Negroes:
 "The black masses have not been elevated by the war on poverty program. As long as the white man has all the power and money, nothing will happen because we have nothing.
 The only way to achieve meaningful change is to take power."

LOS ANGELES — Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), giving his views on "black power":
 "The trouble with 'black power' is it implies 'anti-white' and we can't have anything to do with it. We are loathe to talk about it. The kindest thing I can say about the term is it's a bad choice of words."

A Bible Thought For Today

Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power; for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created. — Revelation 4:11

It is often pointed out that the general concept of God is too small. Is your idea of God big enough?

 Today is Tuesday, July 5, the 188th day of 1966, with 170 to follow.

The moon is between its full phase and last quarter.

The morning stars are Venus and Saturn.

There are no evening stars.
 American showman P. T. Barnum was born on this day in 1810.

On this day in history:
 In 1811 Venezuela declared its independence from Spain, the first South American country to do so.

In 1935, President Roosevelt signed the Wagner-Connery bill, which was officially known as the National Labor Relations Act and guaranteed labor's right of collective bargaining.

In 1945, Gen. Douglas Mac-Arthur announced that the entire Philippine Islands had been liberated and the Philippine commission could be regarded as closed.

In 1965, French President De Gaulle's government boycotted the European Common Market trade community, creating danger to Europe's ever increasing prosperity through trade.

A thought for the day — American statesman Benjamin Franklin: "He that goes a borrowing

RETIRED TILES

WASHINGTON — Congressional auditors think the Air Force could have saved $3 million in one year if it had rebuilt its old tiles instead of buying so many new ones.

The General Accounting Office said Friday the Air Force considered many tiles that could have been rebuilt, and in other cases allowed tiles to wear so thin rebuilding was impossible. The Air Force acknowledged the study and said it was taking corrective action.

BOMB DEFUSED

HANAU, Germany (AP) — De-flection experts Friday defused a 500-pound bomb which apparently was dropped during World War II.
 The bomb was found by a dredger working on a construction site.

QUAKE

KATMANDU, Nepal (AP) — An earthquake which killed western Nepal Monday destroyed more than 1,000 homes in two villages, a home office spokesman said Friday. At least 16 persons were reported killed in one of the villages.

UNPRESCRIBED TREATMENTS — In Chicago, more than 200 doctors, nurses and other medical personnel picketed the American Medical Association Convention at McCormick Place in support of civil rights within the AMA and in support of changes in the AMA constitution proposed by five state medical societies. And in New York, Dr. Ira Lubell, district health officer at Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant Health Center, advised a family to go to another district for treatment for a boy's testicular tumor because physicians, dentists and "hospitals" refused to report at the city's 142 clinics a "service for higher pay, job security and other benefits."

Ron Santo Captures The Hearts Of Cub Fans; Gets Back Into Line-up With Timely Hitting

By JOE GERGEN

UPI Sports Writer
 Ron Santo captured the hearts of 23,004 fans and turned the stomachs of 24 teammates.

Santo, the National League's All-Star third baseman, returned to the Chicago Cubs lineup Monday, eight days after his cheekbone was fractured by a pitched ball, and delivered the most dramatic hit of his career to extend his hitting streak to a record-tying 27 games.

What he failed to deliver was the pizza he traditionally buys for the team whenever he has an outstanding game. It seems that the pizza place Santo owns in a Chicago suburb sold out during the holiday.

"The boys were giving me a lot of razzing because I couldn't buy them pizza," grinned Santo after the game.

Only moments before, he had stopped to the plate in the seventh inning of the Cubs' matchup with Pittsburgh with darkness descending on Wrigley Field. He had pounced out and walked twice in three previous appearances and his chance of tying Black Wilson's club record appeared slim.

Bangs Out Single
 But Santo, wearing a special hot net to protect his face and his left eye blackened from the injury at Detroit, heard an inside-the-park homer to complete the Sox scoring in the seventh.

Dick Green drilled a three-run homer and knocked in five runs as Kansas City snapped Baltimore's seven-game winning streak, 5-6 but the Orioles seven-game American League lead remained intact as Detroit bowed to California, 11-6.
 Minnesota topped Cleveland 5-4, Boston blanked Washington 1-0 after the Senators had won the first game 5-4 and New York earned a split, with Chicago by shapping the White Sox 5-2 after a 5-0 loss in the opener.

A three-run homer by Willie Star-gel and a two-run blast by Gene Alty led the Pirates to victory in the first game, winning pitcher Vern Law had three consecutive hits but yielded home runs to Adolfo Phillips and Buddy Hunsley as well as Santo before departing in the eighth inning.

Gaylord Perry ran his record to 12-1 by setting down the Cards on seven hits. In addition to driving in a run himself with a fourth-inning single, Perry struck out nine.
 His triumph left him with a winning percentage of .525—tops in the majors—and only one short of teammate Juan Marichal's 13 victories. The Dominican right-hander

Lee Stange's three-hit second game pitching gave the Red Sox their split. The only run came in the opening frame when Jose Triabull singled, stole second and rode home on George Scott's single. Ken Blanton's two-run homer triggered a six-run Washington rally in the second inning of the opener.
 Don Blasingame and Jim King also picked up two RBIs as Dick Bosman won his second major league game against four losses.

Home runs by Joe Adcock, Jackie Warner, Jose Cardenal and Jim Preget boosted California past Detroit. The Angels tallied four in the seventh and five in the eighth to hand Larry Sherry his first setback after five wins.

Don Buford and J. C. Martin balanced the game in the eighth inning to end the Sox' losing streak at 10 games.

Shortage Of Wood Supplies Is Seen

MADISON, Wis. 579 — The United States will run short of natural wood supply by the year 2000 unless there is broadscale adoption of modern forest management programs, an executive of one of the nation's leading papermaking firms warned recently.

John R. Kimberly, president of Kimberly-Clark Corporation, said long-range estimates based on population trends indicate that timber growth and forest inventories will fall about 25 per cent short of meeting the nation's total wood requirements 35 years from now.

In that span of time there will be at least an 80 per cent increase in demand for all forest products, without any comparable expansion in the supply of raw material — trees — he said.

Kimberly told a Governors' Conference on Forestry and Forest Restoration last Dec. that the techniques and the knowledge exist today to prevent this depletion of forest preserves, but that the implementation of such programs on a broad scale "suffers from a combined lack of communication, education and motivation to overcome the inertia of the unconcerned."

Modern forest-management programs, he said, re-seed or plant more than 1.5 million acres of trees a year, but there still exist approximately 100 million acres of vacant or sparsely stocked forest land. Stocking or reforesting this land, Kimberly said, could provide enough wood annually to meet the nation's needs for the next century.

"One of the most promising prospects for increased growth is coming from laboratory research," Kimberly said. "The tree, a most complex organism, is just beginning to reveal some of its closely guarded secrets. Research scientists are beginning to isolate some of the key factors which affect the growth and structural development of trees."

In his own company, Kimberly-Clark, he said, forest genetics activity conducted in laboratories and experimental forests is directed toward developing a family of "super trees" with superior papermaking fibers as well as greatly accelerated growth.

'Indifference' May Be Misunderstood

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: We have been married for 30 years, and I have never been the least bit jealous, but lately have been "burned" about the attitude of my husband toward his secretary. On Mother's day he invited her to share the day with us, and it was quite plain that SHE was the guest of honor.

She was seated carefully at the table and helped down the stairs, while I got along the best I could. On Father's day she gave him an antique jar which he put in the den. He said it would make a nice conversation piece. Well, it certainly has! What do I do after I accidentally (?) break the jar?

ANOTHER ANTIQUE

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem which has confronted me every place I have worked. I am a single, rather attractive girl, who always ends up being asked out by a young man from the office. The young man in question is very nice, but I just do not care for his type, and do not wish to go out with him again.

I thought if I went out with him just once and treated him indifferently, he would catch on and give up, but it hasn't worked that way. I had to quit two jobs for that reason, and now it looks like I'll have to quit this one, too. It is so hard to say tactfully, "Please, don't bother me." Any suggestions?

Jones-Cassidy Wedding Vows Solemnized In Ceremony At Oaklawn Church

In a candlelight ceremony on Saturday, June 18, at the Oaklawn Methodist Church of Brookport, Ill., the marriage vows of Mary Jacquelyn Jones, 21, and James H. Cassidy of Murray, were exchanged. The double-ring service was performed at 8 o'clock in the evening with Rev. James Calhoun officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Van Papeghem of Brookport, Ill., Route one. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cassidy of Murray Route One.

A white wedding arch, wreathed with greenery and accented with white chrysanthemums, formed the focal point of the elegant decorations, with baskets of white chrysanthemums and gladioli on either side. Chandeliers holding lighted tapers were placed against a background of ferns and palms, illuminating the setting. Music for the wedding was presented by Mrs. Lenore Roberts, the pianist, and Ed Roberts, vocalist.

Entering the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a formal gown of white tulle with a sheer lace collar, accented the bride's finger-veil veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of pink roses on her left arm.

It is so hard to say tactfully, "Please, don't bother me." Any suggestions?

DEAR HELP: Silly girl. Your first mistake was going out with a young man in whom you had no interest. He probably mistook your "indifference" for the "hard-to-get" technique, which makes you all the more attractive to him. If you don't want a friendly dog on your lap, don't scratch his neck.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "UNHAPPY" IN SARATOGA: You can't MAKE anyone like you, but you can make yourself more likable.

Leg Drama

It Is Achieved With New Stocking Styles In Luscious Colors And Texture

THE knack of showing the well-displayed leg to advantage and in good taste is a current feminine problem as hemlines continue to escalate higher and higher.

Meeting The Issue
But, as usual, hosiery manufacturers are resourceful and are meeting the "above-the-knee" challenge beautifully.

SIMPLY SWEET, the name of this white, lacy Rose adds pizzazz to white vinyl coat and poor boy sweater ensemble.

New Stocking Concepts
New concepts in longer textured stockings, narrow wells and knee-high socks have been designed to complement thigh-high skirts and to mitigate the startling impact of the spectacular exposure of leg.

The Panty-Stocking
And, to eliminate entirely the problem of garters showing, the panty-stocking, which has been around several years and which assures an elegant flash of stocking no matter what the degree of exposure, is one of the best solutions.

Many Versions
It comes in many versions from the regular type to the hipster. Some of the newer ones have panty sections as sheer as the stocking itself; others have tops with sufficient stretch to serve as a girdle. And some have panty sections of contrasting colored lace.

To assist women who are not familiar with them to select the right size, manufacturers are identifying them by foot size, height and weight.

The lovely stockings shown here were created by Kathleen Bremont, stylist for Hanes Hosiery, and are representative of the many variations that will be seen this summer and in the fall.

LEGSLITES, new panty hose that's sheer to the waistband, complements a lovely suede shift designed by Bonnie Cashin.

PLAIN FANCY, white lacy fishnet textured stocking of Vytene spandex and nylon gives elegant-to-leggy look and has an elegant affinity for this checked ensemble by Paraphernalia.

Thrashers are well named because that is exactly what they do. Thrash around, throw sticks, stones, and generally cause a lot of commotion in their search for dinner.

Lifted up a broad plank over the weekend and dog gone if there wasn't a bullfrog stretched out flat on the ground under it hiding from the sun. It was most under the board and he was enjoying the coolness of nature's own air conditioning. He took off like a scalded dog when discovered.

Jim Meyer and his lovely wife in for a visit.

They arrived last Friday from California for a visit with Jim's parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meyer, and two sisters.

Jim is a former Ledger and Times carrier. Highly intelligent, he appeared as he says "fat and happy."

His wife is the daughter of a former minister here in Murray. Her family moved to California when she was small and she and Jim met out there. Small world.

ers, students, housewives and businessmen learning to improve their musicianship, giving pleasure to themselves and others in the process.

Membership in the Singers is open to any person willing to take and pass a simple musical audition. Last season, a class was organized for improvement of basic musical skills in order that both members, and those seeking membership, might better perform. Out of membership in the Singers many enduring friendships and several marriages have resulted.

Friday night performance will salute Murray and Callaway County in the first community night of the season. Interested citizens from this area will have an opportunity to go by bus from Murray to the Amphitheater, have a barbecue chicken dinner at the park, a reserved seat for the show and return trip to Murray for $5.25.

Tickets are available for each performance at the Park's Hotel lobby or box office. Admission is $2.50 for reserved seats and $2.00 for general admission.
